

The following is a standard form letter sent to those who request Scriptures in languages we do not have...

We appreciate your interest in finding a _____ Bible. We regret to inform you that we are neither a bookstore nor a supplier for all Bibles in all languages. We are a Bible translating and publishing agency and that is our primary focus. As a matter of priority, we handle distribution of Scriptures only for those Bibles that we translate.

While we have published a number of Bibles, New Testaments, and smaller Scripture portions in various languages, and are currently involved in several additional projects around the world, we have not yet been involved in any translation projects in the language you requested.

Here are several Bible societies and ministries who distribute Bibles in numerous languages. Please contact one of the organizations below:
