

Either A Missionary or A World Christian.
Either A Goer or A Sender.
Either a Missionary or a Member

What is the difference?
Missionary describes an action.	World Christian an attitude.
Missionary describes a calling.	World Christian describes a command.
Missionary describes going.	World Christian staying.
Missionary involves a few in the church.	A World Christian involves everybody in the church.
Missionary invokes thoughts of receiving.	World Christian invokes thoughts of giving.
Missionary suggests clergy.	World Christian suggests laity.
A Missionary gives to the World Christian what they do not have (time and call).	The World Christian gives to the Missionary what the Missionary does not have (resources and prayer support).